

6516207133.txt

Our country was built on the principle that competition is good.
XM radio is a superb new medium that competes directly with AM and FM radio.

To suggest that XM be restricted in their offerings so that AM and FM can have a competitive advantage and that the government should agree to be a party to this would be shocking.

Stopping competition is never a good idea. Dont do it!

Respectfully,

Richard Rossi